Dear beautiful people,

Cluj-Napoca is a city of stories written by our community. Here, in the heart of Transylvania, each of us holds a pen and helps shape our city: children bring smiles, families offer stability, students bring energy, young people come with ideas and the wisest among us share their guidance.

In Cluj-Napoca, we are united by our respect for the past, the joy of living in the present, and the desire to contribute to a future built on European values. Thus, Cluj Days celebration - four days of festivities - reminds us why we are here and why we call this city HOME. Here, we say "No, hai!", and the city answers "No, bun. Venim acum!" ("Alright then, let's go - we're coming now!").

During these days, I invite you, as you please, to enjoy play, relaxation, and good cheer! More than 100 events in over 40 locations await you with sports, cultural, creative, innovative, entertaining and emotional experiences. Cluj belongs to all of us - to the generations who, through collaboration, have worked together and opened their hearts to build a vibrant, prosperous, multicultural city where everyone can find their place, be authentic, and enjoy life.

Wonderful days in Cluj!

Emil Boc,

Mayor of Cluj-Napoca

CHIRIȚA ÎN CONCERT

powered by betfair ROMANIA DEVELOPMENT

based on works by Vasile Alecsandri and Matei Millo

THURSDAY | MAY 21 ST | 8:30 PM

Cast:
Chiritza Bârzoi – Anca Hanu
Bârzoi – Cornel Răileanu
Aristitza – Mihnea Blidariu
Calipsitza – Cristian Rigman
Lulutza – Sânziana Tarța
Gulitză – Miron Maxim
Leonash – Matei Rotaru
Sharlatanii – Radu Dogaru și Cosmin Stănilă

A concert performance by Ada Milea songs by: Ada Milea și Anca Hanu set design: Alexandra Constantin lighting designer: Jenel Moldovan

Although Vasile Alecsandri and Matei Millo drew inspiration from the life and customs of the 19th century, creating a character typical of the ambitious petty bourgeoisie, Chirița/Chiritza easily finds many counterparts in our contemporary society. With her air of superiority, constantly fussing over her daughters whom she sees as ten times more beautiful than they really are, always hunting for money and fortune, tyrannical yet deeply moved by every little gift or compliment, slippery in her relationships with men and swooning over the attention received from people with status and influence, Chiritza nevertheless cannot be entirely unlikeable. She is a Romanian female version of Monsieur Jourdain, whom Ada Milea and Anca Hanu imbue with a new explosive comic energy, ridiculing the whole range of false pretensions, snobbery, lack of culture, and kitsch sensitivity.

UNITER Award for Best Performance of 2019.
UNITER Award for Best Leading Actress - Anca Hanu, for the role of Chiritza Bârzoi, 2019.

Notte d'amore is a concert-event that brings to the heart of Cluj a highly refined musical experience, where the emotion of love meets the cinematic power of great Italian scores. Scheduled for May 23, 2026, in Unirii Square, Cluj-Napoca, as part of Cluj Days, the performance offers a musical journey through famous canzoni and film music, in a grand format for soloists, choir and orchestra.On stage will perform tenor George Vîrban and baritone Florin Estefan, alongside Giancarlo Palena (bandoneon) and Ovidiu Lup (piano), under the baton of conductor David Crescenzi, together with the Orchestra of the Romanian National Opera of Cluj-Napoca. The monumental scale of the evening is enhanced by the reunion of the city's three major choral ensembles: the Choir of the Romanian National Opera, the Choir of the Hungarian State Opera, and the Transylvania State Philharmonic Choir.The repertoire brings together emblematic titles such as Caruso, Vivo per lei, Il mondo, and Nel blu dipinto di blu, alongside powerful orchestral and choral moments such as The Ecstasy of Gold and La vita è Bella.Notte d'amore thus becomes not just a concert, but a collective experience in which live music transforms the urban space into a place of authentic emotion, celebrating love, elegance and the power of art to bring people together.

Move for education

We offer 250 hours of practical workshops for 500 children from rural communities.

Walking Month is a walking challenge dedicated to raising funds for social causes. Each year, we support a high-impact project by a trusted NGO, providing funding and visibility.

This year, we are supporting the Educalise Association, whose activities focus on three main areas: education, healthcare, and social support for children and families in need.

Join Walking Month and help us give young people a future with equal opportunities.

WHY NOT CORPORATE ENTERTAINMENT

EXPERIENCE DESIGN AGENCY

WN Corporate Entertainment is the Why Not Us agency division dedicated to corporate clients. We design and coordinate every detail of your event from the creative concept to execution ensuring each project reflects your brand's vision and personality.

With over ten years of experience in event planning, we create corporate experiences that stay with people. Themed parties, team buildings, product launches, award galas, brand activations, company anniversaries, workshops, every project is thoughtfully delivered with attention to detail, energy, and creativity.

We offer a full range of services: event concept, decor & styling, event and conference management, logistics & equipment rentals, drone shows, lighting & sound, artist booking, food & beverage.

The WN Corporate team is made up of specialists with solid industry experience, who stay by your side at every stage of the project. We operate nationwide, adapting to the location and specifics of each event.

Reach out at contact@why-not.us or visit why-not.us to explore our work.

CLUJ DAYS - ZERO WASTE FESTIVAL

ALPIN Recycling

ZERO WASTE TO LANDFILL

Zero waste landfill

— Collect. Recycle. Value. Reuse. —

1 Waste collection

Separate waste collection for a cleaner environment.

2 Sorting and material recovery

Recyclable materials are separated and prepared for recycling.

3 Recycling

Recyclable materials return to the economy as raw materials.

4 Producing fuel from waste

Non-recyclable waste is converted into alternative fuel.

5 Energy recovery

The fuel produced generates clean energy and contributes to a sustainable future.

6 Reuse of inert waste

Inert waste is reused in construction and other useful applications.

0% landfill disposal

Our goal: ZERO waste to landfill.

Protect the environment | Save resources | Build a better future
